NACUMS EDUCATIONAL CONFERENCE

Saturday, July 22 – Monday, July 24, 2023

Omni Hotel | Providence, RI

— EXHIBITORS —

Dear friends and business partners,

We are excited to request your attendance at this year's NACUMS annual educational conference, being held July 22-24 at the Omni Hotel in Providence, Rhode Island. As the largest organization of higher education postal and logistics professionals, NACUMS draws college and university attendees from across the country who, like you, are excited to connect through this year's national conference.

Our business partners are an essential and valuable part of our conference programming. This two-day exhibit hall allows attendees the opportunity to learn about new products and services to enhance and improve their operations, and they want to talk to you as the expert in your area! You will interact with qualified decision-makers, reconnect with current customers and generate new customers. Take advantage of this opportunity to build relationships, educate attendees on your products and services and promote your company through exhibiting, sponsorships, and networking.

Your support and attendance are what makes these events possible. Join us in Providence in July and help your current and future customers in their journey of Navigating Success...Beyond Tomorrow!

Sincerely,
NACUMS Conference Committee
